In the Senior Division, athletes will compete with increased intensity and attention to detail. Game strategy and philosophy will include:

- the flex offense – motion offense – high low post
- rapid ball movement – dribble penetration – breaking a press
- help and recover – hedging screens – fronting the post
- full court pressure – half court traps

Practices will be held for two hours each night, two nights a week depending on gym availability and games will be played on Saturdays. Scores and standings will be kept. Teams will be seeded in the playoffs according to how well they finished during regular season play.

Any student participating on the middle school basketball team (boys or girls) is not eligible to play in the biddy buddy program.

Cost - $40.00 per player with a $5.00 discount for each additional sibling (Child two - $35.00, child three - $30.00.....etc.). Make checks payable to Morgan County Biddy Buddy Basketball.
